EXPERIENCE AND CREDENTIALS

We have assisted lawyers at all levels of seniority and in every area of practice for more than two decades.

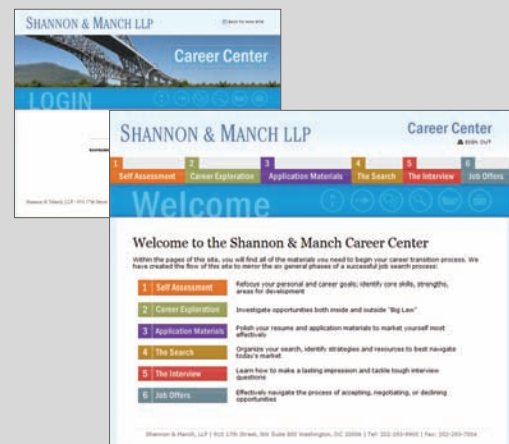

In addition to our internationally-recognized consulting practice that expands our knowledge base and understanding of the trends affecting lawyers, each of our career advisors and coaches has a master's degree or beyond in the field of counseling and/or a law degree.

Every member of our team is certified to administer, analyze, and interpret the full range of personality and career interest inventories. Learn more about our team:
