

SHANNON & MANCH CAREER COACHING

Shannon & Manch, LLP, the premier provider of career advising and coaching services among AmLaw 100 firms, now offers individual Career Coaching services for lawyers.

FLEXIBLE COACHING PROGRAMS

We offer affordable, flexible, and individualized programs for Career Coaching and will work with you to find the program that meets your unique needs. All of our programs include the following primary elements: self-assessment, identifying distinctive strengths and areas for development, examining and clarifying organizational expectations, and developing an action plan and performance measurement strategy.

WHY HIRE A CAREER COACH?

Pursuing a successful legal career, changing jobs or deciding to leave the law after practicing can seem a daunting prospect, but our highly experienced coaches can help you:

- Launch a strategic job search
- Integrate career with personal values and vision
- Chart a plan for your ideal career path, inside or outside the law
- Hone interviewing skills to increase impact
- Unlock the federal government hiring process
- Take performance to the next level—communication, leadership, business development
- Develop a strategy to get new business and build a network, including the use of social networking
- Increase satisfaction with your professional life
- Improve effectiveness and efficiency
- Re-enter the legal profession after time away
- Strategize a retirement plan from full-time law practice

HIGHLY SPECIALIZED COACHING PROFESSIONALS

Our experienced legal career development coaches provide one-on-one, confidential sessions held in person or over the telephone. Each of our coaches has undergone executive coach training, has a master's degree or beyond in the field of counseling, and/or a law degree.
